

ATTENTION!

Starting on November 1st, 2023 The Galveston County Jail is moving personal mail to a digital platform. We will no longer accept personal mail addressed to Inmates following this date.

Any personal mail received and post marked after the November 1st date will be returned to sender.

Any mail received without a return address will be turned over to the post-office.

After November 1st, 2023 -All personal mail will need to be addressed to the following address below in the format stated:

Your inmate's mail must now be addressed to:

Name of facility, State
Inmate Name, Inmate Identifier
P.O. Box 247
Phoenix, MD 21131

For example:

Galveston County Jail, TX
John Smith, #11111
P.O. Box 247
Phoenix, MD 21131

IMPORTANT: To ensure your mail gets delivered electronically include:

- Complete facility name (no abbreviations) and state
- Inmate's full name and inmate identifier
- Sender's full name and physical address
- ONLY send personal mail such as letters, pictures, and drawings
- Follow the guidelines of the facility for checks / money orders and attorney-client privileged mail and DO NOT send to the new (Phoenix, MD) address